

Piggy Nero

Hello Dalai

venue: Underbelly (Iron Belly) venue 61
dates: 3-27 Aug (not 14, 21)
time: 6.45pm
box office: 0870 745 3083

Ticket Prices:

Previews Aug 3-4 £5.00

Aug 5-6, 11-13, 18-20, 25-27 £9.50 (£8.50)

Aug 7-10, 15-17, 22-24 £8.50 (£7.50)

Catch the East Infection as award-winning PIGGY NERO bring Peace and Harmony to the Edinburgh Fringe with their second show, Hello Dalai.

Directed and co-written by Cal McCrystal, (responsible for previous hits with The Boosh, Spymonkey and Peepolykus) Hello Dalai is a fast-paced blend of comedy and theatre. It is an epic tale on a small stage, taking the audience from Edwardian England to the magical land of Shangri-La.

When their Zeppelin crashes in the Himalayas, Lady Olivia and her manservant, Herbert Spunk, find themselves in a peaceful paradise where their lives are changed forever. Their Eden soon comes under threat and their values are put to the ultimate test.

Piggy Nero cram song, dance, melodrama and slapstick all into one hilarious hour.

Hello Dalai contains partial nudity and is not suitable for children.

Piggy Nero's first show The Bubonic Play won Best Farce 2005 from the Fringe Report Awards.

World Press for The Bubonic Play:

"Akin to a Steve Martin or Mel Brooks filmic farce. A joy throughout with hilarious performances."

The List

"The funniest theatre you will see"

Adelaide Theatre Guide

"Riotous"

The Scotsman

"Wonderful - the best moments are priceless"

Chortle

"A comedy so much at the service of its audience that not a tiniest gag or a quip will be allowed to slip past unnoticed"

The Stage

"Sheer Talent"

Fest

"A great show for peasants and gentry alike"

Three Weeks

"Has audiences dying with laughter"

The Program, Sydney

For press tickets, phone the Underbelly Press Office: 0870 745 3078
or press@underbelly.co.uk

For further information, please contact:

Jamie Glassman on 07957 234 125 or press@piggynero.com

Downloadable images on www.piggynero.com/press/ and by request